Summer is a busy time for the UMD Anthropology Department! Field schools are in session and students and faculty are diving into research. New books have been published, and we're still celebrating the naming of the Kerley Chair.

Click on the postcards to learn more about what we're up to and to follow us on social media!

All the best,
Paul Shackel
Department Chair

To: UMD Department of Anthropology Alumni and Friends