Education:

- University of Alaska Fairbanks, B.A. Anthropology, 2016
- Kenai Peninsula College, 2012

Continuing Education:

- University of Alaska Fairbanks, Field School, Mead Site. May-June 2013

At field school I was responsible for assisting in excavation of a well-documented site, located near Delta Junction in the interior of Alaska. This included excavation of features, faunal remains, and lithics. I also gained experience using total station-assisted mapping, cataloging and artifact conservation. This was done in a field laboratory setting, completing data entry and quality control.

Professional History:

- TRC Companies June 2021 to Present
- Lone Mountain Archaeological Services Inc. January 2017 to May 2021
- Isotope Lab work, University of Alaska Fairbanks. January 2016 to May 2016
- Archaeology Student Assistant at the Museum of the North. September 2014 to May 2016
- Archaeology Laboratory Assistant at University of Alaska Fairbanks. March 2013 to May 2013

Professional Experience:

As Field/Lab Crew Chief, responsibilities include assistance in survey, site documentation, data recovery, and in-field artifact analysis. Post-field lab work includes artifact analysis, cataloging, data entry, assisting in report preparation.
