Exhibition of “The Immigrant Experience in Prince George’s County”: Events and Venues.

I. Prince George’s County Administration Building in Upper Marlboro
   Oct. 19th 12 – 5pm
   3pm: Reception with light refreshments and introductory remarks

II. Independent Film Fall Series at Hyattsville library
   Oct. 22nd 5pm Showing of exhibit in advance of screening of Film “Slavery by Another Name”

III. International Education Week activities, Prince George’s County Community College:
     College Life Services Room C, Largo Student Center
     Nov. 7th 12pm Display of exhibit as a component of International Education Week activities occurring simultaneously
     6-8:30pm Presentation of exhibit by Dr. Freidenberg and Heidi Fishpaw for International Populations Network of Prince George's County meeting. Agenda for this meeting is being prepared by organizers

IV. Independent Film Winter Series at Hyattsville library
    Jan. 28, 2013: “IMMIGRANT LIFE STORIES IN PRINCE GEORGE’S COUNTY”
    (4 segments, see below)
    7-9pm: 1. Immigrant Voices: (22 minute DVD)
            2. Growing Old in El Barrio: (15 minute DVD)
            3. Life Histories of Foreign Born Residents in Prince Georges County: (15 - 20 minute DVD)
            4. Inside/Out: Growing Old in the United States (Smithsonian multimedia presentation via website)

Discussion by panelists:
Dr. Judith Friedenberg, University of Maryland, Department of Anthropology, Immigrant Life Project.
Heidi Fishpaw, University of Maryland, Department of Anthropology, Immigrant Life Project. Graduate Student
Representative from Smithsonian Institution